Chitkara University College of Nursing

2021-2022

CHITKARA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF NURSINGSTAKEHOLDER FEEDBACK REPORT 2021-2022

A meeting was held on 6th June 2022 to discuss on Curriculum related feedback received from the stakeholders of B.Sc. Nursing (Basic) Programme (Students: 93, Faculty members: 17 and Industry: 4). Points /concerns raised by the stakeholders are summarized below.

Sr. No.	Key Suggestions	Source	Recommendations
1.	Advised that the students should communicate with patients more effectively and participate in hospital-related documentation.	Industry Feedback	The teacher advised to ensure that students communicate with the mannequins in the same way as if they are dealing with real patients. Further communication skills of students can daily be supervised by the teachers. A workshop on effective communication and documentation can be planned accordingly.

2.	Advised to organize inter-nursing college events.	Faculty Feedback	DAAC committee was asked to plan inter-nursing college events such as Debate competitions, Panel Discussions and cultural events.
3.	Suggested to organize national or international conference once in a year by the department	Faculty Feedback	It was recommended that the DAAC committee plan conferences in the year ahead.
4.	Organize sessions on cracking competitive exams.	Students Feedback	DAAC committee was advised to start Career Preparation programs focused on preparation for competitive exams like NORCET and PGI in the coordination of HODs.
5.	Students requested for clinical posting in Govt. Setting for Obstetrics and Gynecology.	Students Feedback	The Head of Obstetrics and Gynecology has been directed to seek approval for the OBG clinical posting in GH-16 Chandigarh.
6.	Students have requested to provide additional classes in a foreign language like German and Chinese other than French.	Students Feedback	The DAAC coordinator was advised to discuss the possibility of the same with the Inlingua department.
